END-OF-LIFE DOULA EXPERIENCE - REPORT FORM

We are so excited to have you apply to our certification program. When applying for INELDA's Certification Program, we look forward to hearing about your experience in the field as designated by these four categories; Receiving Education, Providing Education, Contributing to the Field, and Direct Service. There is a suggested minimum of 36 hours, but each case will be individually considered. You may not have hours represented in each category. Please see the information below for examples and hour requirements for each category.

HOURS AND ACTIVITIES BY CATEGORY:

Receiving Education:

Each applicant must show proof of an End-of-life doula training. If you have trained with INELDA, we will have a record of your participation. If you have trained additionally with another organization and then our Bridge Training, please share your certificate of completion with your primary training. Share additional training and pertinent education so that we can understand your experience. Minimum of 12 hours, No maximum.

- End-of-Life Doula Training
- Conferences/ Symposiums
- Webinars
- Seminars
- Academic courses
- Leading workshops and webinars
- Online learning
- Self-study courses that award CEUs/CEs
- Academic courses
- Workshop
- Peer Groups
- Community of Practice

Providing Education:

You may have some experience providing education in your community. No minimum.

- Workshops
- Webinars
- Death cafes
- Information Sessions
- Advance Care Planning

Contributing to the Field:

We all enter this field from different entrance points. Please share ways that you may have provided contributions to the field of deathcare. No minimum.

- Publishing an article in a professional journal
- Writing a chapter in a published book or published article in a journal
- Publishing a book for professional (using a publisher or self-published)
- Publishing a book for the public (using a publisher or self-published)
- Completing a thesis or dissertation
- Advocate for policy change

Direct Service:

Paid or unpaid hours providing direct service. This is the most important section, as we hope to understand your background in supporting people throughout the spectrum of end-of-life. Minimum of 20 hours, No maximum.

- Volunteering for a hospice or another EOL care program such as No One Dies Alone
- Direct doula service

INELDA
CELEBRATING A DECADE OF DOULAS
10

END-OF-LIFE DOULA CERTIFICATION
HOURS SUMMARY:

Doula Name: _____

Date	Hours	Topic of Education	Type of Verification	INELDA Received
Receiving Education	Minimum 12 Hours/ No Max	Examples: Attend Conferences, Webinars, Symposiums, Seminars, Online Learning, Self-study courses, Workshops, Peer Groups	Certificate of completion, acknowledgement of having attended. Upload each certificate or proof of attendance.	(Office use only)
Recieving Education Hours		← Enter Your Total

Date	Hours	Topic of Education	Type of Verification	INELDA Received
Providing Education	No Minimum	Examples: Teach an academic course, Lead workshops and/or Webinars, Provide community education via death cafes or public events, etc.	Listing for class, brochure, ad, flyer, notice with name, date, hours. (Instruction time only, not prep time)	(Office use only)
Providing Education Hours		← Enter Your Total

Date	Hours	Topic of Education	Type of Verification	INELDA Received
Contributing to the Field	No Minimum	Examples: Publish an article in professional journal, Write a chapter in published book or journal, Publish a book for the public, Completing thesis or dissertation	Copy of book cover, abstract of article, link to article - include links in space below	(Office use only)
Contributing to the Field Hours		← Enter Your Total

Date	Hours	Topic of Education	Type of Verification	INELDA Received
Direct Service	Minimum 20 hours /No Max	Examples: Paid or unpaid hours providing direct EOLD care, Volunteering, Private client, Hospice work, etc.	Brief written summary of direct care provided written on a separate sheet of paper. List each occurrence separately.	(Office use only)
Direct Service Hours		← Enter Your Total		